KIP FLADLAND

was born and raised in Montana. He has spent the last 30+ years working with and riding horses. He has been a student of Ray Hunt and Buck Brannaman's style of horsemanship; working exclusively with Buck for five years. Kip's main focus is starting colts under saddle, working with problem horses, and conducting clinics. Many of the horses he has trained have progressed into careers in dressage, hunter/jumper, 3-day eventing, reining, cow work, cutting and trail riding.
